

Enchanting Story Telling Evening shared by

The Khoi - San Community

Join us around a camp fire and experience compelling stories told by the Khoi-san people of the South of Joburg. Their history, heritage and culture will be revealed through story telling, traditional music and dance.

28 March 2015

17:30 for 18:00

Gates close promptly at 18:00

R100 per person

includes tea and coffee

Klipriviersberg Nature Reserve

At the Old Farm house

Entrance at Impala South Gate (near fire station)

co-ordinates: 26° 18' 36.46"S 28° 1'9.34"E

Tickets limited to first 60 people booked and paid

Bring own picnic food, drinks, chairs or blankets

RSVP by 25 March 2015

Book your space with Lea Brash on:

leabrash@kolisa.co.za

Event brought to you by KNRA, KlipSA, SOJO and Jackson Drift Khoi-San Development Association

